

JOIN US FOR AN INTERNATIONAL
SEMINAR (FREE):

Global Considerations in Family Ethics

Presented in English and Portuguese

All are welcome to join!

 Tuesday, March 7, 2023

 10.00 AM - 2.30 PM EST

Scan the code to register or click the link here!

SPEAKERS

FAMILY ETHICS AND GLOBAL CONSIDERATIONS

Regina Szylit, PhD, RN, FAAN

Regina is a Professor and Dean at the University of Sao Paulo, School of Nursing in Sao Paulo, Brazil. She is vice-chair of the International Work Group in Death, Dying and Bereavement (IWG) and a Country Liaison Coordinator in International Family Nursing Association. She has developed an integrated program and process of education, research, and clinical practice aimed to improve nursing care to families of children in palliative care.

TAKING ETHICS AND EQUITY TO THE BEDSIDE

Angela (Angie) Knackstedt, BSN, RN, NPD-BC

Angie is the Program Manager for Health Literacy & Nursing Bioethics at Children's Mercy Kansas City. Her nursing career has focused on nursing professional staff development, bioethics, health literacy, pediatric oncology, injury prevention and advocacy.

RESEARCH AND POLICY IN FAMILY ETHICS

Barbara Voltelen PhD, RN, MHSc, Health Visitor and Sr. Lecturer

Barbara focuses on supporting families throughout the lifespan living with health challenges in a cross professional setting. She teaches in a School of Nursing in Denmark and conducts national and international research among families where a family member suffers from life-threatening diseases.

MOVING FAMILY ETHICS FORWARD

Janet A. Deatrck, PhD

Janet is Professor Emerita of Nursing, University of Pennsylvania. She is known for her expertise in family science, health equity, and qualitative (participatory) and mixed methods research methods.